Dear Sir or Madam:

Please excuse the delay in providing this updated information. The letter had been misplaced. I have enclosed the revisions- i.e. changes in the numbering of the figures. I have also included a cheque for $432.

I phoned your office to enquire about the late submission of our revisions and was told that it would be accepted with late penalty charges to be determined. Given that this is our first application, we would ask for your understanding and hope that everything is now in order to proceed with the application.

Sincerely yours

Christopher Rudd
President, Immune Ventures
